Frequently Asked Questions

Who is eligible to be nominated?

Nominees to be considered for the CLGSA Hall of Fame must have been a member of the Columbus Lesbian and Gay Softball Association for at least 10 years as a player, coach, manager, scorekeeper and/or umpire (hereby known as “CLGSA members”). If a potential nominee does not meet the 10-year requirement, but the nominator believes that person’s contributions have been of great significance to CLGSA, special exemption can be requested.

What are the criteria for nominees?

Nominees should have made a significant, positive contribution to CLGSA’s mission. CLGSA’s mission is to strengthen the Columbus community by providing social connections, camaraderie, and athletic competition for players at all skill levels.

Who are honorary members?

Honorary members are individuals who have assisted significantly in the development of CLGSA but have not participated on the field of play in any way. Only CLGSA Hall of Fame members can nominate candidates for honorary membership, though suggestions are encouraged.

When are nominations due?

Nominations for 2022 Hall of Fame induction must be received by Sunday, July 24 at 11:59pm EST.

Who can nominate?

Any current or former CLGSA member may nominate a candidate for the CLGSA Hall of Fame.

Who votes on the nominees?

All living members of the CLGSA Hall of Fame are eligible to vote.

How many affirmative votes are needed for a nominee to be inducted into the CLGSA Hall of Fame?

Nominees who receive three-quarters of the votes of eligible voters who return ballots by the deadline will be inducted into the Hall of Fame.

What happens after the votes are tabulated?

The CLGSA Hall of Fame Chairperson will notify nominees who secured enough votes to be inducted.

What is the timeline for 2022 nominations, consideration, and induction?

July 24 (at 11:59pm EST):	Nomination deadline
July 25-29:	CLGSA Hall of Fame members consider and vote on nominees
July 30:	CLGSA Hall of Fame 2022 inductees notified
August 14 or 21 (TBA):	CLGSA Hall of Fame 2022 class inducted at CLGSA end-of-season banquet

When is the new class inducted?

The new class is inducted at the CLGSA end-of-season banquet. Should there be no end-of-season banquet, CLGSA and the CLGSA Hall of Fame shall determine another opportunity for induction.
